Dear Friend:

As you read this letter, someone is being physically abused by an intimate partner. According to the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence, every minute that goes by at least 20 people become a victim of domestic violence and abuse.

Domestic violence also referred to as intimate partner violence (IPV) does not discriminate. Anyone of any race, age, sexual orientation, religion or gender can be a victim or perpetrator. It can happen to people who are married, living together or who are dating. It affects people of all socioeconomic backgrounds and education levels.

On, Saturday October 19, 2019, The Light of Kimberly will be hosting, "In Her Shoes Gala" at Community Empowerment Association located at 7120 Kelly Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15208. Tickets for this event are $50. I personally invite you to join the Light of Kimberly in honoring survivors and victims who have lost their life as a result of domestic violence. You can purchase ad space in our program. You can also dedicate space with a typewritten message in the program for someone you know who is a survivor or who is deceased due to intimate partner violence. You can also purchase a table to honor that individual.
